General Comments
On the day of my visit the children were engaging in dramatic play downstairs. They have a great variety of toys and resources available and the children can help themselves or request toys that are put away. They have some new children's toys, a tree house, a barn and a greenhouse. They have new books that just arrived and Natalie subscribes to Pinna, which are talking books for children. During snack time they listened to a talking book as they sat and ate. The NB Curriculum is well implemented in Natalie's Early Learning and Childcare Home and there are numerous examples in all her daily programming. In the morning Natalie teaches a preschool program and in the afternoon, an afterschool program. Natalie picks up the younger afterschool children and the 2 older afterschool children have permission to walk.
