General Comments
The space provided for children's learning is bright, spacious and obtains many learning opportunities for the children. The children have a balance of indoor and outdoor learning activities. The Operator has a purposefully planned and documented program. Learning stories, children documented books, pictures and community outreach was visible at time of visit. Children are engaged in postcard correspondence within Canada, as well as, outside of Canada. Operator engages and takes interest in the children's work during play. Operator has implemented the curriculum framework within her facility and is providing a program that is developed through the children's interests. The filing system for all required information to meet regulations under the Act is meticulous. Licensing staff was able to verify all information with ease.
