Comments: The inspector verifies the daily activities to ensure they are purposefully planned and documented for the 1 group that was missing this information. Inspector is shown a new booklet containing documentation for each child and the group with daily log of activities they have completed. The inspector recommends that writing ideas of planned daily activities would help navigate the day each morning on what they intend to do with the children. Deficiency is now compliant

General Comments
Inspector is onsite to complete the follow up inspection and observes 1 group finishing lunch while the other groups were just finishing up lunchtime, preparing for the rest period. The ratio is respected during the follow up inspection.
