General Comments
The center is very bright, clean and organized.  Upon arrival, the children were directed to wash their hands before playing.  I observed allot positive interactions between the educators and the children including positive guidance and encouragements.  The educators are very respectful towards the children and seem to have a great relationship with them.  One group read a book together and then went outside and the other group did arts and crafts.  Everything was in compliance during my visit, I recommend for licensing.
