General Comments
When I arrived, the children were getting ready to go outside and were heading on a field trip in 15 minutes. My observations on staff-child interaction were limited today, however, while outside playing in the wooded area, staff were observed engaged with the children and one staff was running and playing tag with a group of children. Staff were also heard providing gentle reminders and proving encouraging words such as "great imagination" and "nice work." The children were happy and exited while boarding the bus; today they were heading to an indoor golf activity. The Centre is clean and organized. There is a wall of kindness in both classrooms, with sticky notes documenting acts of kindness by the children and there were also books for the children on kindness. Lots of materials of different categories and interests are available to the children. Everything is in compliance; I recommend for renewal.
