General Comments The Quality Assurance Monitor is on-site this afternoon to conduct a monitoring inspection. The following elements are observed: - Child Records - Signed Consent - Incident Report - Medication - Diaper Changes - Personal Belongings - Washrooms During the visit, the end of nap time is observed, and an educator is reading Who Wants a Dragon? during snack time. Educators are preparing the children to go outside, including the application of sunscreen. Positive interactions between educators and children are also observed. The Quality Assurance Monitor discusses the designation requirements for the renewal year with the operator. The operator confirms that they are in the process of completing their 10 hours of professional learning and that their Quality Improvement Plan is up to date. The ratio is respected during the visit
