General Comments

Renewal Inspection - School - Age Program Only:

Part-Time Preschool not observed today, as it is currently in the process of getting up and running for the year.

School- Age Room:

A variety of invitations were set-up for the children when they arrived from school this afternoon. Educators have created an environment that is inviting and engaging. Children observed choosing from the variety of activities that were set up; including open-ended art, exploration of loose parts, water play, dramatic play, painting or a board game in the cozy area.

It is evident that the room is well maintained and organized.

Many positive interactions were observed between the staff and children. Each child was greeted with their name and a warm welcome as they arrived from school.

Hand washing routines observed.
A healthy snack was served.

Discussed adding descriptions and dates to documentation and art pieces.
