General Comments

When I arrived the children were having snack. Apples, yogurt and rice cakes. There were only two children in attendance After snack time the operator took me downstairs where the classroom is set up.

As I reviewed the child records, staff records and child attendance records. The children played. The operator was attentive to the children as they made food in the in the pretend kitchen.

The Operator was very open and friendly while I was there.

Criminal record and Social Development checks will be expiring in June. Operator stated will have them updated for license renewal in June.
