General Comments

There was only one child in attendance on the morning of my visit. Operator had a valentine themed invitation on the table which consisted of gems, confetti, kinetic sand, shiny hearts and numerous other materials. Operator also had another table set up with play dough and cookie cutters. Operator has been adding many wooden and natural play materials to the indoor play space. Solar system and planets have been a focus in the home centre. The children have drawn pictures of planets and have a mobile of the solar system that came with a book about the planets. The operator is very nurturing and attentive to the children's needs.
