General Comments
A monitoring inspection took place today in the afternoon. Children were observed in both the indoor and outdoor environments, including during the transition from indoors to outdoors. Additionally, the children were observed eating snack, with hand washing occurring beforehand. Indoors, the children were engaged in a variety of activities, including playing basketball and soccer in the gym, making bird feeders, playing board games, and reading books. Outdoors, the children were observed playing on the stationary equipment. The educators indicated that the children are currently interested in Beyblades, gross motor activities specifically basketball and soccer, making their own comic books, and Lego. The rooms were well organized and inviting, offering a varied supply of age-appropriate materials, books, and toys. Educators demonstrated positive interactions by using encouraging language and gentle reminders. They asked open-ended questions, listened actively, and extended children's ideas through conversations. A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for posting the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documents observed included incident logs, daily attendance records, random review of ten child files, and monthly emergency evacuation and fire drill records.
