General Comments
A monitoring inspection occurred in the afternoon. The children were observed in both the indoor and outdoor environments. Upon arrival from school, one group transitioned indoors while the remaining two groups stayed outdoors. Indoors: The children were observed engaged in a variety of activities that included coloring at the table, tracing pictures using the window as a backlight, playing with cars, and building with Lego. Outdoors: The children were observed engaged in a variety of activities that included playing hockey, drawing, and digging in the gravel within the play yard. Several children were also observed eating their snack, with handwashing occurring beforehand. The educators indicated that the children are currently interested in sports, crafts, Lego, dramatic play, and word searches. Positive child guidance techniques were observed. The educators were observed to be engaging at the children's level, providing appropriate supervision, using encouraging language, offering choices, and assisting children with decision-making. Several forms of documentation were visible throughout space, including photographs, learning stories, interest webs, and children's artwork. The rooms were well-organized and inviting, offering a varied supply of age-appropriate materials, books, and toys. A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for posting the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documents reviewed included incident logs, daily attendance records, daily information sheets, a random review of ten child files, two staff files, and records of evacuation and monthly fire drills.
