General Comments

Monitoring visit performed. No compliances
The administrator/educator is following Covid guidelines and screening essential workers prior to entry.
New staff to this facility but not to Kinderland Daycare. One staff recently retired and a staff from the other facility transferred over.
Children treated with lots of attention, lots of engagement and conversation. Educators are very caring and assist children with eating. Children learning new words. Children observed playing with blocks and musical toys, sliding and eating lunch before going down for a nap. Programming stories are also posted.
2 staff always required onsite even when children napping to meet ratios. This was the case during my visit one staff covering nap, then they switch.
I did review Administrative records during my visit and all in order.
