General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today.
The children were observed during morning snack, inside play, outside play, lunch, quiet/nap time, diaper changing and handwashing.

There is a wide variety of age-appropriate materials for the children to interact and engage with in each of the learning environments and the children's learning is documented and displayed in each room.

Educators were observed having positive interactions and conversations with the children in their care, tending to their needs and redirecting behaviors appropriately.
