General Comments A monitoring inspection occurred today in the preschool-age program in the morning. Upon arrival, the children were observed listening to a story. The operator asked open ended questions to encourage the children's input and thoughts about what was occurring on each page. Once the story concluded, the children were observed engaging in a cutting activity at the sensory bin before transitioning outdoors. Outdoors, the children were observed blowing bubbles and noticing how the bubbles adhered to the ice without popping. They were also painting snow and ice, and exploring with bowls, muffin tins, and scoops. Several forms of documentation were visible throughout the room, including photographs, learning stories and children's artwork. The room was well organized and inviting, offering a varied supply of age-appropriate materials, books, and toys. The operator demonstrated positive interactions by using encouraging language and providing gentle reminders. The operator asked open ended questions, listened actively, and extended the children's ideas through meaningful conversations. A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for posting the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documents observed included incident logs, daily attendance records, a random review of ten child files, and monthly emergency evacuation and fire drill records.
