General Comments A Monitoring Inspection was completed this morning. The preschool children were observed sitting at their table, eating snack. Operator was observed conversing with the children, asking the children questions about some of their favorite activities. The preschool area was observed to have several well-defined learning / play centers, some of which included the following: reading, building, arts & crafts, science, and dramatic play. Materials were available and accessible. Children were observed taking part in a variety of activities – drawing, sitting and listening to a story, exploring instruments, and playing with babies. Children were also observed playing with rotary phones, ordering pizzas. Several loose parts were observed. Artificial plants, lamps, and cozy rugs / blankets were observed throughout the space, and instrumental music was playing in the background. Positive child guidance techniques were observed – Operator sitting with the children at snack, reading with the children, conversing with the children, respecting the children's feelings, and understanding child development.
