Comments: Children were wiping off tables with Lysol wipes that are not recommended for children.

General Comments When licensing staff arrived, children were eating snack which was cereal and milk. Food was accessible on the table for children to independently choose which cereal they wanted and additional servings. After snack, children and educators cleaned up and children were invited to play a game of Twister. Children were excited to take turns and play for over an hour. Some children returned to a craft activity creating patterns with beads. Resources were accessible in the space and educators engaged in conversations with children throughout the day. The educators had planned several activities throughout the day including a movie. Educator's files were brought on-site by the administrator and a reminder given for a copy of each educator's file to be maintained on the premises of the facility including staff signed statements and duties and responsibilities.
