General Comments

The afternoon of my visit the children were just arriving. They had snack and had a bit of free time before starting the day's activity.

The educators have started to plan weekly activities for the children. This week activities were candy cane hunt, Christmas decoration crafts, writing letters, and Christmas cooking. Elf on the Shelf, Buddy, has shown up in the classroom this month. Everyday he is doing something different. He leaves a note for the class to read every afternoon.

The educators are in the process of organizing the materials in the class. They have one corner almost completed. They have add a cozy area that the children were using when I was there.

I would like to see some more materials in the classroom so the children are able to enjoy various experiences in the classroom
