General Comments

Children were about to have snack when Licensing staff arrived. The operator provides snacks for the children. The morning snack was toast with cream cheese, tomatoes, milk and water. The home center is bright, clean and organized. There are a variety of materials for the children to learn and explore with. The operator gives the children individual attention by asking each child questions about the activity they are engaged in. During the visit I observed the operator reading a story to the children. The Story was "My Ocean is Blue" The children also participated in singing and dancing activities before outdoor play time. The operator follows the lead of the children as noted when she asked the children "What do you want to do? Dance or play in the sensory bin?" During outdoor time the children participated in a variety of activities such as blowing bubbles, playing with balls, basketball, cone and ring game, sand box to exploring on the "boat". The operator was observed sitting with the children during lunch time, talking and asking questions to promote conversation. The children seem very comfortable in the environment and are familiar with the daily routine.
