

Early Learning and Childcare Facility Inspection Report

Type of Inspection: Renewal Inspection

Pursuant to section 21 of the Early Childhood Services Act, operators of licensed early learning and childcare facilities must post their most recent inspection report in a clearly visible and prominent place in the facility.

Name of operator ZMORROUD GERGES 2019197 Inspection Date January 30, 2025 Facility Name Tiny Stars Address 13 Morning Gate Drive Fredericton NB E3B 0G5 Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Laura Casey Position Title Inspector Treder for Compliance Regulation General Comments Upon Licensing staff arrival, the Operator was welcoming as the children were washing their hands and preparing for morning snack time. For morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack, the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children
Facility Name Tiny Stars Telephone Number (506) 261-1106 Address 13 Morning Gate Drive Fredericton NB E3B 0G5 Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Laura Casey Position Title Inspector Order for Compliance Regulation Date to be corrected Ceneral Comments Upon Licensing staff arrival, the Operator was welcoming as the children were washing their hands and preparing for morning snack time. For morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack. the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stayed indoors today as the wi	Name of operator	Licence Number			Inspection Date
Address 13 Morning Gate Drive Fredericton NB E3B 0G5 Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Laura Casey Order for Compliance Regulation Date to be corrected General Comments Upon Licensing staff arrival, the Operator was welcoming as the children were washing their hands and preparing for morning snack time. For morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack. the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stay	ZMORROUD GERGES 2019197			January 30, 2025
Address 13 Morning Gate Drive Fredericton NB E3B 0G5 Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Laura Casey Regulation Date to be corrected General Comments Upon Licensing staff arrival, the Operator was welcoming as the children were washing their hands and preparing for morning snack time. For morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack, the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stayed indoors today as the wind chill was below -20 °C. Licensing staff recommends for renewal.	Facility Name				Telephone	Number
Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Laura Casey Position Title Inspector	Tiny Stars				(506) 261-1	106
Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff Laura Casey Regulation Date to be Corrected	Address			•
Corder for Compliance Regulation Date to be corrected General Comments Upon Licensing staff arrival, the Operator was welcoming as the children were washing their hands and preparing for morning snack time. For morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack, the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stayed indoors today as the wind chill was below -20 °C. Licensing staff recommends for renewal.	13 Morning Gate Drive Fredericton NB E3B 0G5
Order for Compliance Regulation Regulation Date to be corrected Date corrected General Comments Upon Licensing staff arrival, the Operator was welcoming as the children were washing their hands and preparing for morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack, the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stayed indoors today as the wind chill was below -20 °C. Licensing staff recommends for renewal.	Name of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff			Position Title
General Comments Upon Licensing staff arrival, the Operator was welcoming as the children were washing their hands and preparing for morning snack time. For morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack, the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stayed indoors today as the wind chill was below -20 °C. Licensing staff recommends for renewal.	Laura Casey		Inspector
Upon Licensing staff arrival, the Operator was welcoming as the children were washing their hands and preparing for morning snack time. For morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack, the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stayed indoors today as the wind chill was below -20 °C. Licensing staff recommends for renewal.	Order for Compliance Ro		egulation			Date corrected preparing for morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack, the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stayed indoors today as the wind chill was below -20 °C. Licensing staff recommends for renewal.	General Comments
	Preparing for morning snack time. For morning snack, the preschool age children sat together at a small table and the infant was in a highchair close by. For snack, the Operator prepared a bowl of dry cereal, apple slices and a glass of milk for each child and was actively engaged in conversation. After snack, the children were observed washing their hands once more before beginning to play in the main space. The main space was tidy and bright. Current learning stories, artwork and family photos were on display. Play material such as blocks, books, dolls, art supplies, musical instruments and dress up costumes were organized and easily accessible to all children. The Operator was observed giving the children their choice of activity play. Children chose to play at a sensory table with rice, gemstones and winter animals, with art material, and wooden blocks. During activity play, the Operator was observed joining each child in play by writing a story in booklet with stickers and drawings, building with wooden blocks and discussing the animals at the sensory table. Positive words of encouragement and kindness were heard throughout the inspection and there was evidence of a daily routine and child led creativity. Later in the morning a gentle reminder was offered to the children to clean up before starting a new activity. During inspection, files were verified, and all required licensing documentation was present. Monthly fire drills, daily attendance forms as well as daily information logs were complete. The parent board at the main entry was organized and required licensing information was visible. The children stayed indoors today as the wind chill was below -20 °C.
1.011.0 1.05.07 10.010.47 10.010.47	original signed by Laura Casev		lo	nuary 3	0 2025

Date

Signature of Early Learning and Childcare Licensing Staff

original signed by
Zmorroud Gerges	January 30, 2025
Signature of Operator/Designate	Date