General Comments

Monitoring inspection. No compliances observed.
Upon arrival some children napping and the other 2 children were enjoying some play opportunities. Children involved in a variety of learning experiences. The Operator has a butterfly gage which is wonderful learning opportunity for learning the stages a butterfly goes through to adulthood. There are all kinds of bird nests under the deck. Children really enjoy watching and counting the birds in the yard, including the family of geese. Administrative records were reviewed - attendance, infant toddler, fire drills, cleaning indoor/outdoor checklist and these are being tracked monthly. Incident reports are being signed off so parents are made aware. This facility is closed first week in August.
Appropriate child guidance practices was observed during my visit. The operator was observed assisting children when required, checking on the napping children every 15 minutes. One child woke during my visit. Children were observed washing hands and eating snack. Today's snack is granola buddies and peaches. Babies were given graham crackers and peaches.
