General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this morning. There were 4 infants present today. Educators were sitting on the floor, with the children. Children were observed climbing, playing with toys, jumping in the jumper, and exploring a wooded puzzle. Several forms of documentation were observed - learning stories, children's artwork, and photos. Positive child guidance techniques were observed - educators speaking in a positive tone, educators at the children's level, educators anticipating children's needs, and educators understanding child development.
