General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection was conducted this morning. Children were observed during inside play. Educators stated that the children are presently interested in music, dance, building towers, mark marking, and anything messy! Today, children were observed looking at books, playing with animal figurines, play food, and sensory tubes. Several forms of documentation were observed - learning stories, children's art, and photos. Nap room was observed. Nap mats were the proper distance away from each other. No loose soothers were observed. Family photos were observed on the walls. The Parent Board was observed, and it contained some of the following documents - past Monitoring and Renewal reports, contact information for Quality Assurance Monitor and Inspector, ELC License, allergies, and daily schedule. Attendance records were observed and were accurate. Diaper changing was observed and all diaper changing procedures were followed.
