General Comments Professional learning hours were verified for all staff. Please ensure records are always available at the facility for verification. Financial records are kept at the main office with the business manager but have been verified. The business manager will apply for an exemption going forward. There was improvement in the facility. The clutter has decreased. The detached door was removed from the play area; items were removed off of the half wall and windowsills. The stove was removed and the educators stated that this area will be used for organized storage. The unstable barbie house was also removed. Please maintain an organized environment and ensure that garbage is always taken out immediately from the outdoor and indoor environments. The administrator stated that holes were being drilled in the tires on this date in the evening and that the board in the playhouse would be repaired. It is currently covered so that the children won't trip over it.

The educators have worked diligently to provide more materials and learning centres for the children. Please continue to add different materials and resources.

I can now recommend this facility for licensing pending a current health inspection.
