General Comments A renewal inspection occurred on May 14, 2025. All staff files were reviewed by Inspector and verified complete. Inspector completed a random review of children's files and these are verified complete All groups, except for the 4-year-old, were observed during the renewal inspection as these children were on an end of the year field trip to Magnetic Hill Zoo. Children were observed by the Inspector during inside and outside play, morning snack, lunch and nap/quiet time. Children's current interests were observed documented and displayed on the walls of the learning environments. Children current interests are music, bugs, and space. Webs, learning stories, pictures and art were observed by the Inspector displayed on the walls. Discussed Professional Learning for staff with Operator and some Educators are completing their required ten hours of Professional Learning as they are currently taking a session with the Early Learning Consultants. Facility is recommended for license renewal, pending the recommendation from Fire.
