General Comments

On the morning of my visit the facility was functioning very well. The children were engaged in numerous activities throughout the center.

The center is clean, bright and the materials are easily accessible for the children to enjoy.

The educators were engaged with the children while sitting and working with them at their level. The educators have a calm mannerism when speaking to the children.

Discussed with the operator the importance of keeping up to date on monthly check lists as some were missed during the winter months.
