General Comments

Monitoring Inspection:

Children and educators observed engaged in a variety of activities this afternoon including small world play, Lego, exploring a marble run, dramatic play and creating with loose parts. A small world invitation of a farm; using animals and loose parts is set-up for the children to explore when they arrive. A large umbrella and soft lighting have been added to the Juniors environment.

QA Monitor discussed some ideas with the senior educator to encourage the older children to engage in play. Examples of card/board games were left with educator. QA Monitor recommended adding real-life items to the dramatic play area and materials for a tinker station.

Written evacuation procedures to be added to floor plan evacuation map at each door in the Senior and Junior rooms.

Cantaloupe, clementines, apples and crackers were served for snack.

Handwashing routines were observed at arrival and before snack.

Monthly fire drills are documented.

Daily attendance records are accurate and reflect all children present. Child-to-staff ratio was observed to be met during Monitoring Inspection.
