General Comments
Today was the first day of Summer after school program. The center was busy. Due to the hot humid weather children were all inside for the day.
Each room was busy with an activity for reading, sensory play, painting, and free play.
There were new educators the staff information was updated. The educators were friendly and are documenting their work.
The fire extinguishers need to be services and there is a trip hazard in the door way between afterschool and preschool section.
