General Comments

During the inspection the QA Monitor observed that all children were offered the opportunity to play in the indoor splash pad; supervision and ratios were respected at all times.
The Administrator discussed how she is supporting all staff in the school age program in developing purposefully planned programs, the programming is documented by one group of educators for both classes for now; however, the educators in the other room will begin to document their observations and reflections, they will demonstrate that they adapt the program to meet the interests, strengths and needs of the children in their group. The daily routine is posted and outlines a period of free play followed by the indoor splash pad and then outdoor time occurs at the end of the day.
