General Comments

Renewal inspection completed today.

Environment is set up with a variety of materials, providing choice for children. Today, children were observed engaged in play in small groups, sharing and talking together. Lego, chess, art, and card games were activities of choice today.

Handwashing was completed ahead of children sitting for snack.

Educators were observed to speak respectfully to children, engaging with them at their level.

Outdoor play area- benches and planters at perimeter of playground contain splintered wood and raised nails. These benches are not used as part of outdoor play.
