General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today.
Children were observed in play in the outside environment. The classroom was full of age-appropriate toys and materials. The educators were observed engaged in meaningful conversations as well as engaging in play with the children. The indoor play environment was set-up in advance of children arriving with invitations and materials for children. Planning sheets were posted with activities. Containers on shelves in the indoor play area with labels of the contents supports children's literacy.
All staff files reviewed, and random review of Child files was completed.
Facility is recommended for license renewal pending recommendation Fire.
