Comments: Twos Room: Children's bedding in one pile on top of cots. Ensure children's bedding is stored separately and does not come into contact with other children's bedding. Discussed with educators during inspection.

General Comments

Monitoring Inspection:

QA Monitor's first visit since facility opened. Monitoring Inspection focus - introduction to staff and to answer questions.

Children in Infant Rooms and Twos Rooms engaged in a variety of activities this morning including; singing, stories, art and outdoor play. Documentation is displayed at the children's level that supports the current interests within each environment. Educators observed engaging with children at their level during play.

A variety of open-ended materials are set up in a way that is accessible, well organized and supports children's playful exploration.

Hand washing routines observed.

General Comments

A healthy snack and lunch was served today. Educators observed sitting with the children during meal time and engaging in meaningful conversations.
