General Comments A monitoring inspection occurred both the morning and afternoon. The children were observed in both the indoor and outdoor environments including the transition between the two. Two-Three-Year-Old Room: The children were observed eating lunch, with handwashing occurring beforehand. Once the children finished lunch, they prepared for nap time, with diaper changing occurring beforehand. The changing area is located within one metre of a sink, and diaper changing procedures are clearly posted. Three Four-year-old room: The children were observed transitioning from outdoors to indoors for lunch, with handwashing occurring beforehand. The educator was observed sitting with the children, engaging in conversation, with music playing in the background. Following lunch, the children transitioned to free play. Several activities were available, including play dough with cookie cutters, a fishing activity with a rod and wooden fish in a container, puzzles, plastic cups with popsicle sticks, a dinosaur-themed tuff tray, and plastic butterflies in a container with moon sand and tweezers. Both groups were observed outdoors engaging in a variety of activities, including dancing to music, using hula hoops, digging in the sandbox, playing with soccer balls, and engaging in family role play in the playhouse. School-Age Room: The children were observed arriving from school. Upon entering the facility, handwashing occurred before the children transitioned to free play. During free play, the children were observed drawing and using digital cameras and recording scenes with animal figures. The children stated that they were making movies. A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for the posting of the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documents reviewed included incident logs, daily attendance records, one child file, and records of evacuation and monthly fire drills.
