General Comments

In all rooms, educators were engaged with children's activities.
 The three-year-old group had a table full of playdough. They were making a wide variety of things with the playdough such as "witch cake", "Halloween cupcakes" and "pumpkin spice muffins with a hint of ghost."
 The two-year-old group had some water play with dinosaurs in the "green slime water."
 Each room provides a wide range of age-appropriate materials for the children to play and create with.
 Materials are at the child's level and easy to access.
 Each child has their own individual space for put their belongings in.
 New staff files contain the proper documentation.
