General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed eating cherries and Yoghurt when licensing arrived. Invitations were observed set up in each learning environment offering multiple choices and engagement of all senses. Documentation represented children's current interests, curiosities and passions. Educators were observed asking open-ended thoughtful questions, while engaged in play indoors and outdoors. All checks were observed and complete. Children's files and staff files were also observed and complete. Facility is recommended for license renewal.
