General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred on September 5, 2025. The children arrived from school via bus and walking and spent the entire inspection outside enjoying the sunshine. Inspector observed the children playing soccer, tennis, socializing with their peers, having afternoon snack and obtaining apples from the apple trees. The indoor learning environment has a wide variety of age-appropriate materials for the school-age children to interact and engage with. Inspector observed board games, dramatic play, books, A new storage shed has been purchased for the outside materials to be stored in when not in use. Children have access to this area to obtain materials they wish to use in the grassy area and the shaded area under the trees. All staff files were reviewed and verified complete and accurate. A random review of ten (10) children's files occurred and were verified complete and accurate. All required paperwork under the Early Childhood Services Act/Regulations was reviewed and verified complete and accurate.
