General Comments

Children were having a pajama party when I arrived for today's follow up visit, and they had just finished carving pumpkins.

All educators were observed being attentive to the children at time of visit.

Since my last visit there have been two mini arcade machines and a large flat screen TV added to the classrooms, please refer to section 7.3 "Digital technologies" (page 53-54) of the Operator's Manual to ensure proper use of these items.

One of the mini arcade machines features the "Street Fighter II" game. This game is not recommended in an Early Learning and Childcare setting and should be removed as it promotes physical violence and does not align with the guidelines for the use digital technologies as per the Operator's Manual.
