General Comments A monitoring inspection occurred in the morning. The children were observed in both the indoor and outdoor environments including transition between the two. Upon arrival, the children were observed engaging in collaborative painting at the table before transitioning outdoors. Outdoors the children were riding bikes, using the swings, playing with water and trucks in the tuff tray, building with wood pieces, and searching for bugs. The operator indicated that the children are currently interested in dramatic play, painting, building with mega blocks and magnetic tiles, and animals. Several forms of documentation were visible throughout the indoor space that included photographs, learning stories, individual learning story books, and children's artwork. The space was well organized and inviting, offering a varied supply of age-appropriate materials, books, and toys. A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for the posting of the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documentation reviewed included incident logs, daily attendance records, daily information sheets, and records of evacuation and monthly fire drills.
