General Comments

During the visit the children were observed in a variety of activities from outdoor play, building with blocks, musical instruments, rolling balls; driving cars over ziploc bags filled with different colored paint so see how the colors mixed, sliding on the indoor slides, costume play, putting puzzles together and playing with play dough. Each room is organized and has a variety of materials to suit the needs of the children. There is evidence of purposely planned programming based the numerous learning stories and children's artwork posted throughout the facility. Families are represented in the rooms through family photo walls and family picture boxes. The Educators were seen sitting on the floor, playing with the children, consoling and comforting the children there were having a rough a challenging day. While one educator was preparing the lunches the other would sing songs or read a story to the children. Educators were also observed sitting with the children during mealtimes. Everything seemed to be running smoothly during the visit as the children and educators have an established routine.
