General Comments

Initial monitoring inspection completed on this date.

Children's files contained all required documentation and were well organized. Required documents were posted in a prominent place at the entrance.

All rooms were well organized and contained a variety of engaging materials at children's level for their independent selection. During the time of the inspection children were sitting for snack time. Educators were observed sitting with children and having pleasant conversations. Infants were in their highchairs while an educator sat with them and provided them with their snack. All infants were content and appeared well adjusted to the new environment.

Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times.
