General Comments The Quality Assurance Monitor is on-site to conduct a monitoring inspection. The Quality Assurance Monitor is present in the morning during indoor play. The children are engaged in a variety of activities, such as picking up small plastic insects with fine motor skill tools while identifying their species, building a fort with mats, reading books with the operator, and playing with wooden shape blocks. The operator provides support and suggestions when children wish to play with the same materials. The following elements were verified: - ratio and maximum number of children - posted in a visible and prominent place in the facility - child records - signed consent in child's file - medication records - incident records - personal belongings - health - medications A discussion took place regarding the children's records. Complete address information must be indicated for each emergency contact as well as the child's family physician. A second discussion took place regarding the children's personal belongings. Each child should have a designated space labelled with their name for storing their personal belongings. During the visit, the ratio is respected.
