General Comments

Initial Monitoring Inspection was performed on this date.

Children's files were reviewed and contained all necessary information. Medication records have been maintained and have been filled out appropriately. Incident reports have also been completed. Licensing staff reviewed reportable incident regulations with the operator to provide clarity.

Indoor play area has been rearranged and now has more defined activity areas for the children. Materials were developmentally appropriate and available for children to select independently.

Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times.
