General Comments

Upon arrival of licensing staff, the children were going to wash their hands for snack. The children sat at the table and ate. After snack, the children engaged in free play. The children were observed playing with dinosaurs and giving them food from the play kitchen. Some children sat down to colour, and another was playing with stepping stones. The operator gave a 5-minute prompt before it would be time to clean up to go outside. The operator played a clean-up song and helped the children tidy. The children were seen dancing to the music. The children and operator went to the washroom to do diaper changes and for the children to use the washroom. The operator was heard praising the children.

The children and operator then started getting dressed to go outside. The operator helped the children with their snowsuits and boots and they went outside together. While outside, the children played on the swings. The children got on the blue circular swing and the operator was spinning them. The children were heard laughing. The children ran around the backyard and played on the snow hill. The children and operator returned inside for lunch. The operator helped the children get their snowsuits off and they washed their hands. The children sat down at the table and ate their lunches.

After lunch, some children coloured and others played with action figures while the operator cleaned up. Music was playing in the background, and the children were seen dancing. The children and operator sat down to read a story. The children used the washroom, and the operator changed pull-ups before helping them get settled for nap. The operator is attentive to the children and speaks kindly to them. Only positive child guidance was observed.
