General Comments Upon arrival, the QAM noted that both Afterschool licenses were operating on site due to the scheduled PD Day and school closure. Children were divided into two groups, with one group located downstairs and the other upstairs. Downstairs Environment Children were observed playing outside on the playground. The indoor space contained a wide range of materials, including art supplies, dramatic play resources, and various games. The environment appeared adequately equipped to support diverse activities. Upstairs Environment Children were engaged in multiple activities, including Lego, Magna-Tiles, Perler beads, and board games. The room was clean, organized, and well-maintained. A variety of art and dramatic play materials were available. Educators were actively engaged with the children, sitting at tables and participating in activities. Child ratios were in compliance. The Parent Board was up to date, with the exception of needing to add the information for the new QAM.
