General Comments The Quality Assurance Monitor is on-site to conduct a monitoring inspection. The Quality Assurance Monitor is present during lunchtime and indoor play. The children participate in a variety of activities, including role-playing with baby dolls, reading books with the operator, and searching for matching pearls based on the pearls identified in the story. The operator supports positive interactions among the children. When children want the same toy, the operator encourages them to discuss possible solutions, and the children choose to share. The following elements were verified: - ratio and maximum number of children - child records - signed consent in the child's file - medication records - incident records - child guidance - health - medications A discussion takes place regarding the renewal documents and the professional learning hours that must be completed before November 30, 2026. The operator confirms that the required professional learning hours for the current year have already been completed. During the visit, the ratio is respected.
