General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today.
Inspector observed in the indoor play area a variety of age-appropriate materials for the children to interact and engage with. Basketball game, giant connect four game, board games, Lego centre, Barbies, and accessories. A reading centre has been created in the loft. Creative art materials are available for the children to create and their leisure.
All staff files were reviewed and verified complete. A random review of fifteen children's files occurred and were verified complete.
Upon arrival from school, Inspector observed the children arriving the bus, transitioning to handwashing, and transitioning to outside play.
During outside play, the Inspector observed the children playing basketball, soccer, swinging on the swings, exploring the wooded area, and outside snack.
Educators were observed speaking kindly and appropriately to the children during the inspection.
Facility is recommended for license renewal, pending the recommendation from Fire.
