General Comments

During my unplanned visit in the afternoon, I observe compliance with the ratio for after-school age. The following elements are observed during my visit:

- Verification of 1 new file for staff members.
- Verification of the incident report (parents are advised of incidents and signs the daily log).

Observation of the arrivals of the school-aged children, the snacks provided by the school, a slime activity and a departure for two children.

The children go outside during my visit.
