General Comments Renewal Inspection: A renewal inspection was conducted during the afternoon hours. The school-age children were observed in the outdoor environment. The children were observed participating in a variety of activities, including coloring, playing soccer, catching grasshoppers, building habitats for grasshoppers, and playing hide-and-seek. The educator was observed bringing materials from the indoor environment to the outdoor environment and actively engaging in play and conversations with the children. Documentation was current and reflective of the children's past play experiences. Learning stories, children's artwork, and photos of the children were displayed. The following records were reviewed: Incident logs, fire drill records, and daily attendance records Child-to-staff ratios were observed to be in compliance during the renewal inspection. All required documentation was appropriately posted on the parent board. All staff files were reviewed, and a random sample of the children's files was also completed. The inspector discussed Section 6.6.2, Incident Reports, of the Operator's Manual with the operator and reviewed the requirement that reportable incident forms be submitted to the Department within 24 hours of the incident. The facility is recommended for licensing.
