General Comments

Licensing staff arrived at the home for a monitoring inspection at 9:00 AM upon arriving the children observed playing in the indoor playroom. The operator was observed engaged in free play activities with the children such as playing with legos the basketball net sensory toys train tracks while other children played in the playpen filled with stuffed animals. One side of the play pen was not clipped in and was not sturdy. Please repair the playpen so that all walls are standing up. The operator was in touch with the children's needs by offering them their water bottles and encouraging them to use the washroom. Had a variety of play materials that were always accessible to the children.

Once it was time to transition to time the operator gave a verbal prompt to the children a few minutes before transitioning. Once it was time to transition the operator asked the Children to head to the dining room to have their morning snack. The children sat down at the table and began eating their morning snacks. The operator was observed filling up water bottles and placing them the people for the children. The children were supervised as they ate their snack after eating the operator prompted the children to head towards the back door to put on their outdoor shoes so that they could go play outside in the playground. The operator is a child with using the washroom before following the other children out to the playground. The operator ensured that the children were properly dressed while going outside. A first aid kit and materials such as chalk, books. Paint brushes and other accessories were observed outside on a shelf. While playing outside the children were observed engaging in water play in a large bin with accessories such as pom poms and paint rollers, in the sandbox with toy trucks shovels buckets and other materials. Other children were observed picking raspberries from the Raspberry Bush and ziplining on the outdoor zipline. Later the operator was observed pulling the children around the yard while they were in the lawn mower trailer. The water hose was brought out to fill up the water play bin and so that the children could go down the "water slide" from the patio. The operator supervise the children while at play and actively engaged in their activities. When it was time to transition inside the operator ensure that all children had their water bottles and personal belongings before heading inside.

Once inside the operator laid out a change of clothes for all of the children one at a time they changed in the washroom. The operator laid out the children's lunch boxes and was observed heating up their food before serving it to the children. The children were supervised at all times while eating a reminder to please complete
