General Comments A Monitoring Inspection was conducted this afternoon. Children were observed during inside play. The indoor and outdoor environments were observed. Educators stated that the children are presently interested in "Moon Balls", Arts & Crafts, and Pet Shops. Today, children were observed taking part in the following activities: Drawing and making open ended crafts; making bracelets out of string and beads, playing with Pet Shops & accessories, building with Lego, and playing cards. Several well-defined centers were observed - reading, building, dramatic play, arts & crafts, science & math, and board games. Several forms of documentation were observed - children's artwork, photos, and homemade scrap books, showcasing the children's past activities. The Parent Board was observed, and it contained some of the following documents - past Monitoring and Renewal Reports, Emergency Evacuation and fire drills, contact information for Quality Assurance Monitor and Inspector, ELC License, Playground Checklist, and daily schedule. Attendance records were observed and were accurate. The outside environment was observed. The proper amount of surfacing was observed in all fall zones.
