General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today. The school-age learning environment was set up with age-appropriate materials and invitations prior to the arrival of the children from school. Upon arrival the children were observed by the Inspector having afternoon snack, playing air hockey, painting with puff paint, creating with Pearler beads, and singing Karaoke. Discussed with the Administrator and Educators that the surfacing under the school's stationary equipment in the outside play area is to be raked daily to ensure the safety of the children. Discussed the purchasing of a rake to use prior to the children utilizing the outdoor play area and stationary equipment. All staff files were reviewed by the Inspector and verified complete and accurate. A review of all children's files occurred and were verified complete and accurate. All items required for license renewal were verified complete at time of the inspection. Facility is recommended for license renewal.
